

ARCE Coptic Icons Postdoctoral Fellowship Application Guidelines

Fields of Study: Coptic or Byzantine Studies or iconography from disciplines such as art history, history, philosophy and theology/religious studies or other related humanities disciplines.

Eligibility:

- American citizenship;
- Ability to engage in full-time postdoctoral research in Egypt for the period of the award;
- Preference given to those with a focus in Coptic Iconography, but scholars of Byzantine, Orthodox or cross-cultural Islamic traditions are also encouraged to apply;
- Ph.D. in a humanities discipline;
- Preference given to candidates not yet in tenure track positions;
- Successful defense of dissertation by March 1, 2020, with Ph.D. in hand by September 15, 2020.

The Application: A completed Coptic Icons Postdoctoral Fellowship application consists of the following components:

- An online application form
- A research proposal (1500 words) that:
 - Describes your academic qualifications to conduct this research;
 - Describes your research approach to the archival materials;
 - Demonstrates your familiarity with the discipline;
 - Addresses the significance of the Coptic Icons postdoctoral research fellowship in terms of your career development and progression;
 - Proposes a timeline for managing the research phases and anticipated outputs;
 - Three recommendation letters.

Ministry Security Forms:

- Ministry of Antiquities security form
- Passport style photograph with white background
- One-page CV

Have questions? Contact: fellows@arce.org

Application Submission Deadline: January 15, 2020.