

News from the Amenhotep III Temple of Millions of Years

Dr. Hourig Sourouzian, Director of the Colossi of Memnon and Amenhotep III Temple Conservation Project, Luxor

A Lecture Presented by the American Research Center in Egypt – Northwest Chapter
Co-sponsors: American Research Center in Egypt – Oregon Chapter
Dept. of Near Eastern Languages & Civilization, Univ. of Washington
Middle East Studies Center – Portland State University

May 14th, 2022 at 10AM PT

A Zoom Lecture (Registration Required)

Register Here

Free and open to the public

Join us for news about the latest archaeological achievements by the members of the Colossi of Memnon and Amenhotep III Temple Conservation Project over the past several years and their discoveries in the temple. Dr. Sourouzian will also discuss the challenges of conserving a ruined temple and plans for future archaeological work on this site.

Dr. Sourouzian, Director the Colossi of Memnon and Amenhotep III Temple Conservation Project in Luxor since 1998, Corresponding Member of the German Institute of Archaeology, and member of the ICOMOS Armenia, graduated from l'École de Langues Orientales, and received her diploma from l'École du Louvre, Paris. She has worked in Egypt since 1974, in archaeological missions of the Centre Franco-Égyptien at Karnak, Swiss Institute at the Temple of Merenptah Thebes, the German Institute of Archaeology in Dashur and Gurna, the French Mission in Tanis, and the French Institute in Karnak-North. She has been a guest lecturer at numerous universities and the W. Kelly Simpson Professor at the American University in Cairo.

For more information about the American Research Center in Egypt-NW Chapter:
ARCE-NW.weebly.com, <https://www.facebook.com/ARCE.Northwest> or email us at nw.arce@gmail.com

